Confirm the tuition fee you'll be charged this year

Your university or college told us your course normally costs £6000.
When your tuition fee is confirmed by your university or college, your Tuition Fee Loan may need to be adjusted.

Confirm, this is the correct tuition fee I'm being charged a different tuition fee

Step 8

Do you want to apply for a Tuition Fee Loan?

Remember, a Tuition Fee Loan helps with the tuition fee charged by your university or college. It's paid direct to your university or college, and only has to be repaid when you've left your course and your income is over £21000 a year.

- Yes, I want to apply for a Tuition Fee Loan
- No, I don't want to apply for a Tuition Fee Loan

Step 9

How much Tuition Fee Loan would you like to borrow?

Your expected tuition fee charge is £6000 a year.
You can borrow a maximum Tuition Fee Loan of £6000 a year.
You can choose to borrow less than this, and can enter a specific amount.
Remember, you'll be responsible for paying any tuition fee amount not covered by your Tuition Fee Loan or bursaries.

- I want the maximum Tuition Fee Loan
- I want to borrow a specific amount

Step 10

Do you want us to automatically adjust your Tuition Fee Loan to match any tuition fee changes?

It doesn't happen often, but universities and colleges sometimes change the tuition fee you'll be charged for your course. They'll normally tell you about any changes, and also let us know.
If this happens, we can automatically reduce or increase your Tuition Fee Loan to match the tuition fee charged by your university or college. We'll then send you a letter confirming the change.
If you'd prefer to make any adjustments yourself, you'll be responsible for paying any tuition fee increases not covered by your Tuition Fee Loan.

- Yes, automatically adjust my Tuition Fee Loan
- No, I'll make any adjustments myself

Step 11

Bursaries - sharing your information

Brit College may award bursaries and scholarships, which can help with living costs or tuition fees. You don't have to pay these back.

We'll automatically share your information with Brit College so they can contact you about any awards. If you don't want us to share your information, simply un-tick the box below.
